

WHY DOES TLC WORK?

Along with our cutting edge curriculum, TLC's unique and innovative program involves a multitude of stakeholders that provide our students and schools with a network of support and resources to ensure student success.

Meet Our Network

TLC BOARD AND STAFF MEMBERS

design a state of the art, innovative service leadership curriculum for high schools, facilitate various educational conferences and workshops, and keep the TLC network connected and engaged.

SCHOOL DISTRICTS

team up with TLC and a certified educator who displays enthusiasm for service and a passion for teen leadership to bring a TLC class to the district at no direct cost.

CORPORATE PARTNERS

fund the development and delivery of TLC's leadership program while providing service grants and scholarships to classes and individuals for specific student-led projects and opportunities.

COMMUNITY PARTNERS

collaborate with TLC students to launch a multitude of student-led service projects while fostering essential creativity, business principles, and problem-solving skills.

TLC ALUMNI

remain a passionate and connected community beyond their high school experience, offering current TLC students invaluable advice, professional opportunities, insight, and inspiration.

commit to Teen Leadership Corps, remaining open and engaged within our network and working to actualize our motto to lead, serve, and inspire the world in all they do.

For 10 years, TLC has brought leadership to America's youth. It is TLC's unique model, incorporating an advanced curriculum with an innovative network of community resources that makes our program a transformative, successful, and life-changing experience for the student leaders we serve.

Our mission is to empower teens to reach their fullest potential.

Together, we work to lead, serve,
and inspire the world.
